AIMS AND VISIONS

- We are focusing on current socio-political questions and design knowledge transfer by the means of art.
- Art is interesting for us because of its particular seismographic sensibility for upcoming questions and new ways of thinking.
- We are always looking for the bigger picture. Therefore our program is embedded in varying institutional networks, in order to gain an interdisciplinary synopsis of actual topics in art, science and society.

Our central concerns are

- to design new formats of knowledge transfer and mediation.
- to provide space for critical thinking and free emancipatory education, along and against the mainstream
- to encourage and to support young artists
